

I support New Jersey's do not call law. I do not want to have to deal with any unsolicited telephone calls and feel that if that is what I want, my wants should be respected. I really do not want to have to rudely hang up on people who call as I certainly will do if the NJ law is repealed.